Ellsworth Public Library Receives Special Donation by 25 Days of Kindness

Ellsworth, ME – The Ellsworth Public Library (EPL) is proud to announce that it received a generous $500 donation from the 25 Days of Kindness initiative. This heartwarming contribution recognizes EPL's continued impact on Ellsworth's communities and beyond as a hub for exploration, engagement, as well as personal and community growth.

The 25 Days of Kindness team also presented donations to other valued local organizations, including The Grand, SPCA of Hancock County, and Loaves and Fishes Food Pantry. The Ellsworth Public Library is deeply honored to be included among these community-focused recipients. The library extends a heartfelt Thank you to Star FM 97.7, 25 Days of Kindness, and the Holden Police Department.

Founded in honor of Chief Greeley, a beloved figure in Holden, Maine, 25 Days of Kindness continues his legacy of service, compassion, and community care. Chief Greeley firmly believed that even the smallest acts of kindness could change lives. Inspired by his mission, 25 Days of Kindness has grown into a statewide movement, spreading goodwill and uplifting communities across Maine and beyond.
