FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friends of EPL to Host Their Fall Book Sale This October

Proceeds from the seasonal sales fund special library programs

Ellsworth, ME — The Friends of the Ellsworth Public Library will host their 2025 Fall Book Sale on October 24 and 25 in the Riverview Room at the Ellsworth Public Library.

Book lovers can browse more than 2,000 fiction, non-fiction, adult, and youth titles, as well as DVDs. This is a great opportunity to find meaningful gifts or inspiration. Holiday-themed books will also be available for purchase (cash or check only).

All proceeds from the Friends' book sales support library programming, including popular events such as live music performances, author talks, special presentations, and children's activities throughout the year.

Coming up on Saturday, December 20, at 3 PM, the Friends of the Ellsworth Public Library will present a beloved community favorite: Frogtown Mountain Puppeteers' "The Grinch." Registration will open in November.
